To Wheelwrights, Blacksmiths, Tanners, Harness-Makers, Saddlers, Hatters, &c.

BELIEVING as I do, that PROVIDENCE, at Fairfax Court-House, would be a suitable situation for mechanics of the above description, I offer to such, lots in that village for sale, on ground rent for ever—will build and furnish suitable houses and rent to them, or furnish brick to them to build with; and invite any who feel disposed to settle there, for the purpose of carrying on their respective trades to advantage, to come and view the situation. It is a very public place, the centre of the county, where the superior and county courts are held. The Little River Turnpike Road passes through this little town from Alexandria westward, and where all the public meetings for the county, &c. are held; and where trades of the aforesaid description being carried on, would meet with great encouragement, and be a public convenience to the country around. No situation can be more healthy—good water, and fire wood cheap. Mechanics of the above description must generally depend on the country people, farmers, &c. to be their customers. Here they would be in a convenient situation for all the purposes. I invite a call, and view for themselves. I would also furnish lots adjacent, from one to five acres each, for cultivation, pasture, &c. on moderate terms; all of which can be shown, and terms made known, on application to RICH'D. RATCLIFFE,
Fairfax Court-House, Va

RAN away on the 28th of April, from the farm of the subscriber, in Dogue Neck, Fairfax Co. Virginia, negro HARRY, about twenty three years, about [illegible] ten inches high, very black, well built, has a considerable impediment in his speech, when spoken to evinces much confusion, and replies almost unintelligibly; had on when he left home, a much worn suit of domestic cloth. I have every reason to believe that he is endeavoring to pass for a free man, and as such went off in some of the bay craft during the late fishing season. All masters of vessels are forewarned from harboring or taking into their employ said negro, under penalty of having the law rigidly enforced against them. I will give twenty dollars, if taken in the county of Fairfax, or district of Columbia; if beyond that distance, the above reward, provided he is secured in jail so that I get him again. He is by occupation a farmer, a native of Kent county, in the state of Delaware, had on a blue cloth roundabout jacket, old black silk vest, corded velvet pantaloons, and a wool hat.

He is a very civil, inoffensive man, with rather a down look. There is reason to suppose that he was decoyed into a carriage, and conveyed southward.

For Sale or Lease,

THE following tracts of land in Charles county, Maryland: one lying on the Potomac, at the mouth of Pomonkey creek, containing three hundred and forty acres, about 16 miles from Alexandria, the larger portion level land, of a stiff soil, well adapted to the cultivation of corn, wheat and tobacco, and equal in fertility to any in the neighborhood. On this farm is one of the most elegant sites for building of all those fine heights which border the Potomac, commanding the most extensive view of the adjacent country, both in Virginia and Maryland, for more than twenty miles up and down the river: located in a genteel neighborhood, it would make an agreeable residence, and from its proximity to market, with the advantage of the best navigation, an extremely profitable farm.—The tenant's houses would accommodate the negroes for its cultivation.

A Tract, about one mile back from the former, containing 334 acres, a large portion in wood, white and red oak, and some chesnut; the remainder a tenement in tolerable repair, the whole a high stiff soil, similar to the one above mentioned.

A Tract, lying at the mouth of Matiawoman Creek, about 25 miles from Alexandria, the whole first rate flat river land, now completely enclosed.—On this tract is a noted fishery, called Rum Point, at which there has been cleared upwards of two thousand dollars per annum, and where independent of the fish sold on the shore, there might be put up from one to two thousand barrels every season; besides the profits of the fishery, the advantage of manuring the farm with the offal of the shore, the whole, with a small portion of industry, might be made to produce ten barrels of corn per acre. On the shore, are a dwelling house, houses for holding salt, and curing any quantity of fish, and for the accommodation of Hands.

A Tract, lying about 11 miles from the last mentioned, containing 256 acres, more than 200 of which are in wood, and would cut from 25 to 30 cords per acre, within one mile of the river, where wood has rarely sold for less than five dollars per cord. It will be divided into 50 or 25 acre lots, to suit purchasers.—If preferred, the wood will be sold standing, for so much per acre.

If not disposed of, previous to the first day of Sept. next, the above mentioned arable lands, will be leased out, upon advantageous terms, for five or seven years, at the option of the lessees.

Application to be made to the subscriber, residing near the head of Matiawoman Creek, Charles county, Maryland.

RUMORS.

Reports of Indian hostilities, and a manifestation of hostile intentions by Indians, have been set afloat within three or four weeks past; and with regret we observe that some of them have found a place in newspapers in different parts of the United States. One rumor told us that the Indians residing on Fox river and in its vicinity had attacked and destroyed a part of the 5th regt. of infantry on its way from Green Bay to Prarie du Chiene and St. Peter's—and there are others of a similar kind, and equally without foundation. Mr. Rathbone, late army contractor, has just returned from Green Bay by land, and passed through the villages of the greater part of the Indians in that remote quarter; he represents the most savage nations, (the Winebagoes, Sacks, and Menomonies,) as totally unprepared for hostility, even if they had a disposition for it, being nearly destitute of powder and lead. Mr. R. ascended the Fox river a few miles with the 5th regiment, and informs us that Colonel Leavenworth called a council with the Winebagoes and Menominies, and told them his object in passing through their country, to which they made not the least objection, but professed their friendship for the Americans in the strongest language, and offered every means in their power to aid the troops in ascending the river—the colonel accepted the services of about a dozen, as pilots and guides. Mr. R. represents the Pottawattamies, Chippawas, Ottawas and Kickapoos, a part of whose country he passed through, as very friendly disposed towards the United States. [Gazette.

INTERESTING.

Extract of Letters, from a gentlemen on board the United States steam boat Western Engineer.

The latest of June 18th, &c. 1819.

By unavoidable delays and the non-ope-operation of parts of the steam engine, the party were detained at the garrison, near Pittsburgh, until the 3d of May. They proceeded from Pittsburgh under a national salute from the arsenal, which was returned from the boats, and the cheers of the numerous spectators who had assembled to see them depart. The first night they came to at Stubenville, the second day passed Charlestown, Virginia, and fired a salute, as is customary, at all towns of note on this river, and on the fourth day stopped at Marietta to procure wood. Here they visited one of the largest ancient fortifications in the Western country, it covers upwards of sixty acres of ground, has high and regular built walls of embankments, with guarded gateways on each side; both within and without there are several large mounds, some of which are round and others square. The largest of the round ones is 30 feet in height, and surrounded by a ditch and bank.

They arrived at Cincinnati in four days from the time of starting—but were only 73 hours in running 526 miles, with the wind the whole distance ahead.

The party were detained a week at Cincinnati on account of the ill health of Dr. Baldwin. While here they were passed by the 6th and part of the 5th regiment, in ten large barges, with 20 oars each; many of the officers had their wives, and some their sisters with them, all in excellent spirits, altogether presenting a very elegant spectacle. A salute was fired on passing the residence of Gen. Harrison, 20 miles below Cincinnati, in compliment to his past services.

The party arrived at Louisville on the 19th—here commence the Falls of the Ohio, which continue rapid for 2 miles, the water flowing for that distance over a flat table rock; having a high steam power aided by the velocity of the current, the boat went over beautifully, and with satisfaction to all on board.

Shippingport is situated at the foot of the Rapids where the party remained four days, and then proceeded to Shawannee town. This town was originally settled by the Shawannee nation, but is now wholly occupied by the whites; it is badly situated, and requires little penetration to say it will never thrive. The party were detained here two days in effecting some slight alterations and repairs in the boat.

Some miles below this town there is a range of limestone rocks, fronting the river in a precipice of sixty feet perpendicular, in which there is a large cave, noted for a number of Mammoth bones found in it; the cave is one hundred and sixty feet deep, and has a beautiful arched front. Here the boat ran on a sand bar, and was got off with difficulty by the crew, in the water, with poles, &c. Two miles below she grounded a second time, but was got off with less difficulty.

'We entered the Mississippi, on Sunday the 30th of May. The Indian name Missachipi; or 'Father of Rivers,' is certainly not unappropriate. The current runs from 3 to 4 miles per hour, and contains about 1-5th of yellowish mud, which prevented our making use of it, as long as we could do without; with all its mud it is considered wholesome water by those residing on its banks; it certainly is better than many of the springs, some of which are very impure, emitting sulphuretted hydrogen, which may be smelt at a quarter of a mile; one of this kind is near St. Louis.

'On the Misissippi game is plenty; we saw deer, turkeys, swan, geese and pelicans; but have not found a new bird.

'The scenery of the Ohio, and lower parts of the Mississippi, present a sameness throughout, until you ascend as high as Cape Guardian; it then becomes broken, and in some places grand beyond any thing I have ever seen; long and broken precipices of limestone rock, of immense height extend for miles along the river; some with bare summits, and others capped with bushes and trees. As you ascend higher, the country gradually opens into prairies, which continue up to St. Louis, which is situated on an extensive prairie, extending 5 or 8 miles back from the river.

'The rise and fall of the Mississippi is not so great as that of the Ohio and some other of the western rivers. The Ohio has been known to rise sixty-three feet perpendicular; ten is high for the Mississippi.

'The floods of the Ohio become more frequent as the country becomes cleared, those of the Mississippi less. We have employed a keel boat and manned her with twenty men, to take our provisions and presents, which enlarges our party to upwards of 40 men—the boat has ascended the Missouri several days before us.'

Colonel J. Johnson has built five steam boats to carry troops and provisions to the Yellow Stone, Three of them are at Belle Fontaine on the Missouri, waiting the arrival of the other two, which have been detained below by accidents—it is mentioned that one of them had taken fire, in attempting to race the Western Engineer, and was near being destroyed, It is the general opinion in that country, that Col. Johnson will meet with great difficulty, as the smallest of his boats draws six feet, and the Missouri is one of the most difficult rivers to navigate. It is gratifying to know that the party are all in health (with the exception of Dr. Baldwin, who is recovering slowly) and in fine spirits at the prospect of entering upon the duties of this arduous undertaking.

TOPICS OF THE AURORA.

The Philadelphia Aurora, of the 30th July, thus touches on the following topics:

CONDUCT OF OUR CABINET TOWARDS SPAIN.

1. Can any one suppose that the Machiavellian policy of the cabinet at Washington, has not been acceptable to the court of Madrid; or that the direct and indirect hostility of the American government against the South Americans, has not been duly appreciated and applauded by the perfidious councils of Ferdinand VII.?—The court of Madrid, though imbecile and abandoned, is not so blind to the importance of the policy pursued by President Monroe and young Sejanus; as to loose the advantages derived from the arrangements of Don Onis, and the intrigues of Mr. Bagot, and the insolent menaces & intrigues of the Abbe Correa. There are men at Madrid who are perfectly aware, that the independence of South America must have been determined in six months, if the independent republic of North America, had only acted with as much generosity and respect for the liberties of mankind as the monarchy of France thirty years ago; the soil of Mexico, and New Grenada, and Venezuela, would have been long since free from the contamination of royal cut throats, had not the U. States, disregarding all sentiments of honor, and humanity, and justice, and character, struck a fatal blow at the independent cause, by an open outrage of war under the most contemptible and disgraceful pretexts. This transaction, faithless as Roman or Punic perfidy, has not indeed obtained the respect nor the esteem of mankind—all discerning and just men in Europe, speak of those transactions with an indignant and abhorrent astonishment; it has tarnished the glory of our military and naval triumphs, as the corruption of the Roman Senate cast a cloud over the virtues of Fabricius; but the congeniality of the policy of the American cabinet with that of the Spanish court, and the powerful division in favor of Spanish despotism made by our young republic, assures us the gratitude of the court of Madrid, rather than its hostility.

IMPROBABILITY OF AN EUROPEAN WAR.

2. Many people hug the delusion of an approaching war with Europe—the occurrence is not morally possible. The general disturber of Europe is exhausted of that stimulating power without which armies much less navies cannot move. The necessity of a loan of twelve millions, and of an inroad of twelve millions more on the sinking fund—so sacredly appropriated to the discharge of the national debt—the poverty and misery produced by enormous taxes, and a ruinous system of extravagance in princes, pensioners, priests and paupers, all of which are necessary parts of the same unnatural system; these are the certain indicators of peace in Europe and in other parts of the earth.

WELLINGTON'S MISSION TO SWEDEN.

3. The mission of the duke of Wellington therefore presents, in the prominence of the character, the evidence of a doleful embassy; to him, alone, who sent Ney to the fusilade, could be entrusted an unpleasant condolence on the inability of England to sustain him on the Swedish throne opposed to the holy alliance, and to the eloquence of silence and indifference manifested by France. The distinction of the messenger is the lenitive for the wound; the excuse for his abandonment.

PREJUDICE IN FAVOR OF FOREIGN MANUFACTURES.

4. Mr. Saltmarsh, of the house of Rawson & Saltmarshes, a British agent, of Halifax, England, broached, with a great deal of irony, in a warehouse in Philadelphia, the subject of domestic manufactures, which caused the owner of the store to show him a piece of superfine cassimere of English manufacture, which he called American, whereupon Mr. Saltmarsh began to abuse it, in every respect, both as to the dyeing and weaving, saying that he could see the American texture in it. He then handed him a piece of superfine domestic cassimere, made by Wm. Young, Son & Co. and called it English. Ah! observed Mr. S. that is something like—look at the dyeing of that—it is far superior, beyond comparison, and worth twice as much—which was the fact. Suffice to say, that this pattern card fool was not undeceived until a fair opportunity offered to shame him for his unblushing effrontery; that which was presented to him as English being American manufacture; and that presented as American being English manufacture.

Baltimore, August 2.

LATEST FROM BUENOS-AYRES.

Politely communicated by Capt. Parlton, of schr. Plattsburg, (at the Lazaretto, August 1,) to the Merchants' Coffee-House.

Arrived schr. Plattsburg, Parlton, 50 days from Buenos Ayres. Left no Americans. There were a number at Ensando, loading chiefly with mules, among which were schr Henry, for the West-Indies, and br. True-Blooded-Yankee, for Baltimore, in ballast. The brig Eliza, Kelly, left Maldando for Norfolk about the middle of April. May 8th, the prize ship La Castilla, in a heavy gale from the eastward, parted her cable and drove ashore at Buenos Ayres; ship totally lost, crew saved. May 12, ship Laguyra, Davis, of N. York, in a westerly gale drove from her moorings in Monteviedo on a rock, and was totally lost, crew saved. The morning the P. left Buenos Ayres, a polacre brig arrived, prize to La Union, did not learn the quality of her cargo, nor where captured.—Goods and merchandize of all kinds very dull at Buenos Ayres,—particularly British and French, which can be purchased 15 per cent. less than invoice; country produce scarce and high. The new director had not been elected on the sailing of the P. altho' the new constitution had provided for it, and it was well known that Pueyrredon had declined a re-election, and that Gen. Baldinezra was to succeed him. The armistice which had been entered into between the government of Buenos Ayres and Artigas had been renewed for three weeks, on account of the absence of Artigas, he having, as was said, penetrated into the Brazil territory, with the troops of which he had a number of skirmishes—in all proved victorious.

It will be perceived by Cochrane's decree, that the blockade of Peru is without limitation, no time being allowed for the different nations to become acquainted therewith, and that altho' an admiral of the fleet of a republic, he is still a lord—his force, though respectable for the state to which it belongs, (to which may also be added the N. York frigate built ship Curiazo, which has gone round to join it,) is still inadequate to blockade so great an extent of coast; so that we shall now see how his friends, the British, relish a paper blockade in other nations. We think they will be apt to suppose it another hoax of the noble lord's.—The 25th of June was a proud day for Buenos Ayres, being the anniversary of the evacuation of that town by the British—as also the day on which the new constitution was sworn in by all the public officers. It was celebrated for three days.

Gibraltar, June 5.

State of the Public Health in the Morocco Dominions, during the last fortnight of May.

At Tangiers the Plague continues to decrease, the number of deaths, during the above period, not having exceeded 10, and there being, on the last day of the month, but one case among the Jews, and two among the Moors. At Tetuan there seems to be no abatement of its violence, the deaths, in 13 days, still amounting to 997. At Fez it rages with increased fury, letters of the 20th stating, that no fewer than 600 persons were carried off every day.—At Mequinez, not more than 3 or 4.—At Rabat, up to the 26th, the mortality had no been so great as by the former accounts, the deaths being reduced to between 20 and 30; but in Salee, they still amount to from 80 to 100.—At Larache, on the 29th, 6 to 8, and at Alcassar from 50 to 70.

June 12.

A notice to the public, drawn up by Don Serafin Sola, a Spanish physician residing in the Morocco dominions, and transmitted to the Spanish government by their Consul General in that country, was published in the Madrid Gazette of the 1st inst. On the authority of Mr. Baldwin who filled the situation of British Consul at Alexandria at a period when one million persons were carried off by the Plague in Upper and Lower Egypt; on that of Baron Desgenettes, Principal Physician to the French Army in that country in 1798; and on that of Father Pavia who had been Director of the hospital at Smyrna, for seven and twenty years; but chiefly relying on the fact, that, both at Tunis, during the plague with which that city was visited in the years 1785 and 1797, and now at Tangiers, since the breaking out of the contagion, dealers in oil, butter, hams, &c. whose hands and clothes are impregnated with these substances, have not caught the disease, although it had spread among their families.—Don Serafin recommends rubbing the body with olive oil as the best preservative against the plague, when there is a necessity to come into contact with the infected. The Spanish physician further recommends oil as the most effectual remedy hitherto discovered for the cure of the same disease, and advises it to be drank luke warm, in two doses of 8 ounces each, within the first 24 hours after the attack, and, on the following days, to be rubbed on the body with various precautions pointed out in the notice.

Providence, July 27.

FROM AFRICA.

Capt. Hollowell, of the brig Richard, recently arrived at this port from the coast of Africa, informs that he witnessed, while at Sierra Leone, one of those tornadoes to which the African coast is exposed, for nearly six months in the year. Their violence and the frequency of their occurrence, are determined by the state of the atmosphere. Ten or twelve of them are generally experienced at Sierra Leone, in the course of a year. The precursors and characteristics of these tornadoes are worthy of philosophical investigation. The sky is clear, a perfect calm has prevailed for several hours—and the air becomes oppressive; when, suddenly, in the most elevated region of the atmosphere, appears, as the indication of a tornado, a little, round, white cloud—not exceeding five or six feet in diameter, and which seems to be perfectly motionless; the air becomes gradually agitated and acquires a circular motion—the leaves and plants, with which the land is always covered, raised by the force of the air several feet from their bed, keep incessantly revolving around the same spot, to the infinite diversion of the natives, who amuse themselves with this rotatory motion. The little cloud which portended the approach of the tornado, having increased in size, insensibly descends to the lower region of the visible horizon. The whirlwind now increases in violence, and soon becomes terrific. Vessels are obliged to double their moorings—they often part their cables, and are driven foul of each other. Many negro huts are swept away, trees are torn up by the roots, & wherever these whirlwinds exert their full force, they leave deplorable traces of their progress. These terrible agents of desolation, happily continue for only 20 or 30 minutes, and terminate in a heavy rain.

FROM MISSOURI.

St. Louis, June 30.

The Steam Boat Calhoun, after having been several weeks in the Mississippi, has fallen back to the mouth of the Ohio, and acknowledged her incapacity, under present circumstances, to stem the current of the Mississippi. Her cargo, consisting of provisions destined for the Upper Missouri, is brought on in keel boats. [Enquirer.

THE NORTH STAR.

Mild star that mark'st thy lonely way,
In yon expanse of cloudless blue;
Whose gem-like form and steady ray,
Attract the heedless peasant's view,
And him whose thoughts to unknown regions stray;

Full oft the wanderer, fortune's child,
Benighted, sad, and doomed to roam,
Beholds with joy thy aspect mild.
That tells of happiness and home,
And guides him onward 'mid the trackless wild.

Oft, too, the sea-boy marks thy beam,
When ocean sleeps in peaceful calm;
While o'er its breast thy peaceful gleam,
Plays wanton, and with sacred charm,
Lulls the rapt soul in fancy's pleasing dream.

And, oft sweet star, at even-tide,
When all around is hushed to rest;
My thoughts ascend and pensive glide,
To distant climes and regions blest,
Where wo-worn care and grief would gladly hide.

And fancy whispers in mine ear,
That those which once were here beloved;
To friendship and affection dear,
Now from this fleeting scene removed,
Repose, bright star, in thy ethereal sphere

Stone Ware.

JOHN SWANN, manufacturer of stone ware, in the town of Alexandria, respectfully informs his customers, that he has been enabled lately to make a great improvement in his ware, although it has been at considerable expense and labor, and he looks to a generous public for a support. He also would inform them, that he has on hand, at this time, a large assortment of ware, equal to any made in the United States. The merchants in the adjoining counties in Virginia will find it to their advantage in buying stone ware from him, as he is determined none shall sell lower than he does, his prices being at this time from 20 to 30 per cent. lower than they are in Baltimore; and he will warrant his ware to be of a good quality, which has been acknowledged by the very best judges of that article.

Lands for Sale.

BY VIRTUE of a power of attorney from William S. Courts to the subscriber, will be sold at public sale.

On WEDNESDAY, the 18th AUGUST, in Port Tobacco, that valuable tract of land whereon John H. Barnes at present resides called lying and being in Charles county Maryland, containing between three and four hundred acres. This land is handsomely situated, lying immediately on Matawoman Creek, at least one third of which is in wood, with a sufficient quantity of marsh land for grazing—that part of the land which is in cultivation is well adapted to the growth of corn, wheat and tobacco, and with proper care would be equal, if not superior to any land in that neighborhood.

Whitland and Cole,

ALSO,

At the same time and place, will be offered for sale the plantation at present in the occupancy of Francis & Sam'l Wheeler, lying about one mile from the above place, containing about four hundred acres. As it is presumed that persons wishing to purchase will first view the premises, it is thought unnecessary to give a more particular description thereof. The terms of sale will be as follows: viz. possession given on the first day of January next, at which time one third of the purchase money will be required, the remaining two thirds at one and two years the purchaser giving bond with approved security with interest.—Upon the payment of the whole purchase money, a sufficient deed will be executed to the purchaser.

Five Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY, on the morning of Wednesday, the 26th May, from the subscriber, in the city of Baltimore, an apprentice to the cordwaining business, by the name of WILLIAM DURANT, about (as he says) between 19 or 20 years of age; 5 feet 4 or 6 inches high; slender made; light hair; dark eyes, and appears somewhat cross-eyed; fair complexion; peaked nose; and marked with India ink about the arm with some fictitious letters and an image resembling part human and part fish; he is very talkative, and forward in speaking; had on and took with him, a corded roundabout and trowsers, fur hat, and new shoes. He is an Englishman by birth, and effected his escape by getting off from the British, whilst lying somewhere about Leonard town and St. Mary's county, and afterwards lived with a Mr. Rudd, a painter, in Alexandria; he was seen in Alexandria.

Whoever takes up the above runaway, and returns him to the subscriber, or gives information so that he may get him again, shall receive the above reward. I forewarn any person from harboring the said apprentice. JOHN WEVER,

Lombard-street, Baltimore.

N. B. The above named apprentice, it seems, at the time of his making his escape from the British, changed his name, and passed for a while by the name of Wm. Wiss, as he has said himself.

Missouri and Illinois Bounty Lands

THE subscriber has now for sale a number of the most valuable tracts, in both of those rich and improving bodies of lands, and can supply applicants with any number they may wish, and in any part of either territory. Every person who visits the Western Country, particularly those who intend settling there, should take with them a few quarter sections of those lands; every man who has a young and growing family, and can spare a few hundred dollars, should not miss the present opportunity of getting some of those lands; as it will insure to his children a greater certainty than any other investment he can possibly make for their benefit.—From the immense emigration to both Illinois and Missouri, particularly to the military lands, it is certain there must be a great rise in the price very soon, and those who miss the present opportunity, will never again have a chance to do so well. The patents will be sold very low, for cash, good notes or bonds at short dates, or bank stock in the Central Bank of Georgetown and Washington, and the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank of Georgetown. As I am a large dealer in Military Bounty Lands, I can supply any number that may be required.

Please to apply at my Exchange Banking House, Bridge street, Georgetown.

JOHN HOPKINS

Hill and Dale, April 20.

Gunston for Sale.

THIS elegant estate is situated on the Potomac, 16 miles below Alexandria—it is bounded on three sides by the Potomac and Pohick creek, and contains nearly 3,000 acres of land, level and fertile, to which are attached six shad and herring fisheries, two of which command the river channel. This land will be laid off in four tracts, so as to have one or more fisheries to each; these tracts will be again divided if requisite. This estate is level and beautifully situated, very fertile, and remarkably healthy. Plaister acts with an effect equal to that of any part of Virginia or Pennsylvania.—I have used 500 bushels in twelve months, and such is its beneficial operation, that were I to keep this land I should considerably increase the quantity. A manufacturing mill is distant about two miles, on a stream navigable for vessels carrying 1200 bushels of wheat, where the Baltimore and Dist. of Columbia prices are given for grain: being bounded on 3 sides by water, a small extent only of fence is necessary to inclose the whole: it would be admirably adapted to grazing. The improvements are a large and very substantial brick mansion, 40 by 70 feet, with every necessary outhouse, three commodious barns, houses for Negroes, and fish houses at each of the fisheries. 120,000 bricks and 1000 bushels of lime are just burnt on the premises. There is a considerable extent of live fence, both useful and ornamental, two orchards of well selected apples and peach, besides an abundance of other choice fruit. More than 150 acres are in clover, 200 in corn, and land is in preparation for sowing 250 bushels of small grain. Any quantity of hay can be cut from the low grounds, some of which (and all might,) have been reclaimed at a trifling expense. The river and creeks, abound with wild fowl, particularly canvass backs, the woods with deer and a variety of other game. Mules, cattle, highly improved sheep, farming utensils and household furniture can be had. The terms of sale will be accommodating. Property in any of the cities, negroes, bank stock, western lands, or lands near the Ridge, will be taken in payment.—Letters must be addressed to me at Pohick Church, Fairfax county, Virginia.

S. Drew, Merchant Tailor,

Removed from Fairfax-street to the corner of King and Columbus streets, and his prices falling

RESPECTFULLY acquaints his customers and the citizens in general that he has removed as above, where he will study to give satisfaction. He has by him a small but well assorted stock of goods, which will be found on inspection to be of the best quality, the whole of which he wishes to sell low for cash, and as further inducements to purchasers he offers to cut out any goods, bought of him to any size or pattern gratis.

S. Drew aware, of the advantage a ready money business has over one where long credit is given, thinks that a distinction ought to be made in the prices in each case; and as the price of provisions are low at present, he is glad to be able to announce to those customers who will feel disposed to pay him ready money for his work, that he will reduce the price of making to them according to the present journeymen's wages; and to prevent any supposed imposition on the one hand or disatisfaction on the other he is willing to be goverued by the printed regulations of prices by which the journeymen are paid in Alexandria.

N. B. Bread, flour, beef, groceries, liquors or any thing valuable taken in exchange for clothes.

S. Drew has this day opened a tavern in the same house, where he has laid in a a supply of Philadelphia and the district porter and ale, together with liquors of the best quality, and he feels confident that he shall be able to give satisfaction to all who will please to favor him with a call.—He is fitting up his house for the accommodation of boarders, travellers, &c. and from its central situation, good beds and stabling, together with other requisites, he presumes that it will be found a convenient establishment. may 25
